Press Release

For Immediate Release

Southeastern Michigan acoustic songwriter Dan Hazlett will be making a rare appearance in the _____(city)_____ Area at _____(venue)_____ to promote his seventh full-length CD of original songs, "Just a Guitar".

With subject matters ranging from carpet stains and the demolition of Barbies to life with his schizophrenic brother, solo acoustic performer Dan Hazlett's (pronounced HAZE-LETT) songs roam from the outlandish to the sublime. His rich, warm voice and skillful acoustic guitar work make his performances touching, humorous and uplifting. Blending a folky, jazzy style with carefully crafted and thoughtful songwriting, Dan has often been compared to artists like James Taylor and Bruce Coburn.

During a career spanning more than thirty years, he has been actively touring the Midwest. Dan has been nominated for several Detroit Music Awards. He was named a finalist in The KRCL Performing Songwriter Showcase in Park City Utah, the Bigtop Chataugua Songwriting Contest and was awarded both 2nd and 3rd place and an honorable mention in the Great Lakes Songwriting Contest. He has been a guest on Nationally syndicated radio shows Albom In The Afternoon (Mitch Albom) and River City Folk (Tom May), and one of Dan's songs was featured on the Nationally syndicated radio program "Car Talk.

In support of his belief that it's important to give back to his community, for seven years he hosted his own folk radio show "Local Folks" on WXOU-FM at Oakland University and has served as a board member of the Midwest Region of the North American Folk Alliance. Dan often donates his time, sharing his songs with patients at the Karmanos Cancer Institute in Detroit.

A prolific songwriter, Dan Hazlett has recently released his seventh full length CD, "Just A Guitar" and has been establishing a growing reputation as an outstanding record producer and session musician for many Local Artists.

He will be performing from __ (times)_____ to _____ at the _____(venue)_____ on _____(date)_____ located at _____(address)_____.
