Bio and Background

Dan Hazlett (pronounced HAZE-let) is an accomplished, polished performer who entertains and uplifts his audiences with a blend of his smooth, soulful voice, his finely honed acoustic guitar work, and his arsenal of well-crafted and thoughtfully presented songs. A multi-instrumentalist, Dan's live shows are punctuated with acoustic guitar, harmonica and trumpet.

Recognition and Releases

For more than 50 years, Dan Hazlett has performed and toured throughout the Midwest. His songs have been recorded by such luminaries as jazz great Kimmie Horne and country music star Bob Marshall. His ten previously released CDs have received airplay throughout the United States as well as internationally.

Dan achieved recognition for his songs as a winner in events such as the Great Lakes Songwriting Contest, Big Top Chautauqua Songwriting Contest, KRCL/Founders Title Folk and Bluegrass Festival, the Billboard Songwriting Competition, and has been nominated multiple times for Detroit Music Awards.

As a songwriting educator, Dan has been featured on the staff at the prestigious Interlochen Center for the Arts, Lamb's Retreat for Songwriters, the Madison Songwriters Guild Retreat, the Alcona County Artists Retreat and the Wheatland Music Festival. He has been a guest on the syndicated radio programs River City Folk and the Mitch Album show, and had a song featured on Car Talk. He hosted his own folk radio show, Local Folks, at WXOU-FM for seven years. As a playwright, Dan authored and toured with the musical comedy "Tumbledown Town and is the co-author of a new musical entitled "Calling Winston."

"Dan's unique vocal styling is paired with excellent guitar playing and thoughtful lyrics. His guitar skills add a great dimension to the original, imaginative lyrics, coming together into a complete package of musicality."
(Andrea Hill, Singer Magazine)

"Excellent songwriting . . . Dan has a way of keeping his audience in the palm of his hand . . . This is one of our favorite performers. We love his songs, we love his guitar playing, we love his performance." (Craig Carrick, NorEast'r Music Festival Coordinator)
